

Barbara Denney Exchanges Vows with David Salzman

COLORFUL RITES AT PARK VIEW LUTHERAN

Looking the part of a Valentine bride was Miss Barbara Ruth Denney, as she exchanged rings and vows February 12 with David Salzman in the Park View Lutheran church, with pastor Karl Oelschlager officiating.

The bride is the daughter of the Elmer T. Denneys of 1924 West 152nd street, Gardena, and the groom, the son of the Elmer J. Salzmans of 1639 West 205th street, Torrance.

Hoop-Skirted Gown
The bouffant hoop-skirted bridal gown was of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, and overskirt and long sleeves of lace and net. Panniers of lace below the waistline gave the appearance of the outer petals of a full-blown flower to the full skirt, which had wide scalloped inserts of lace also at the hem.

The bride's fingertip length veil of tulle and lace was caught by a tiny pearl-encrusted crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Escorted by Father
As she was escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride was preceded by her cousin, Mary Covington, who as flower girl wore a dress of pale yellow lace and net underlaid with taffeta.

Maid of honor was her sister, Nancy Denner, who wore pink taffeta and net and carried yellow rosebuds and carnations.

Bridesmaids were Judy and Shirley Denner, also sisters of the bride, Shirley Salzman, sister of the groom, and Christine Risk. Their nylon dresses were bouffant pink and blue nylon, and they also carried rosebud and carnation bouquets.

The groom was attended by Richard Craig as best man. Ushers were Don Porter, Hal Shupp, Russel Nelson, Bill Kudlemaier, Frank Newman,

Arrowhead Honeymoon

The couple left for a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead following the reception held at the home of the bride's parents. Approximately 250 guests were present to felicitate the couple and watch them cut the four-tiered cake.

Present for the occasion were the grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Elmer Salzman Sr., who traveled from Wakuegan, Illinois, for the wedding, and the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hoff of Escondido.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose an ensemble of turquoise faille, and Mrs. Salzman wore a blue-gray suit.

Will Live in Torrance
The newlyweds, both of whom graduated from Gardena High School, will reside on Cabrillo ave., Torrance. He is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co. in Los Angeles.

Officers Named At 186th Street

Mrs. Ben Cothran, parliamentarian and chairman of the nominating committee of the 186th Street school PTA, recently reported the list of officers to include Mesdames Herman Eisenbeiss, president; James McMillen, first vice-president; Guy De Montigny, second vice-president; W. S. Steward, secretary; William Turrentine, treasurer; Robert Parmer, auditor; and J. P. Pnevost, historian.

Lomita Garden Club Plans Show, Festival

The Lomita Fuchsia and Garden Society discussed its annual fall festival and the community flower show at the regular monthly meeting held last Friday, February 18, in the American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne avenue.

Mrs. Victor Bittner and Mrs. Kermit Glutz volunteered as co-chairmen for the annual festival, usually held in November, which is the only fund-raising event of the society.

The discussion of the community flower show followed. This show, held June 4 and 5 at the Lomita Park building, is open to all. For full information as to entries and other data, interested individuals and organizations may phone Mrs. Robert Riggles, chairman, at DA. 6-6002.

Speaker at the meeting was Ken Terry, nurseryman of Walteria, who spoke on the new 1955 fuchsia introductions. These new plants, Terry said, may now be purchased locally. One plant he stressed in particular was named "So Big" in keeping with its remarkable size bloom of five inches.

Guest prize went to Mrs. L. McCutcheon. Mrs. A. Alonge won the member prize, and a birthday plant gift was given to Jack Koebig.

The next board meeting will be held 7:30 p.m. March 16 in the home of the Victor Bittners, 26322 Fejoa.

The next regular meeting at the American Legion Hall will be at 8 p.m. Friday, March 18. Speaker at this meeting will be Mrs. William Sheares, Los Angeles Flower Show judge. Mrs. Sheares is qualified to judge anywhere in the United States, society sources reported. She also acted as judge at the Statler Hotel National Begonia convention this past summer.

Courtesy Night Held At Torrance O.E.S.

A capacity gathering observed District Courtesy Night recently at Torrance Chapter O.E.S. A huge heart with a vase filled with red and white carnations decorated the front of the pedestal in the East. Each guest on entering the chapter room was presented with a red and white carnation corsage.

Courtesy officers presided, and the meeting was called to order by Worthy Parton Leslie Baker of Playa Linda Chapter, Hermosa. The worthy matron was Jo Parsons of Lomita Chapter. Special escort was given to Worthy Matron Phillis Peverley and Worthy Patron Earl Wells of Torrance Chapter.

District Officers Escorted
A large group of past matrons and past patrons from the entire district were escorted and presented. Phillis Peverley, worthy matron of Torrance Chapter, presided during the business session. Good of the Order was conducted by Leslie Baker of Playa Linda Chapter. The courtesy matron, Jo Parsons was invited to speak, as were both of the deputies and the local worthy matron and worthy patron.

Banquet hall tables were decorated in red and white by Ruth Hardin, chairman for the evening, and her committee, Mona Williams, Ada Drake, Myrtle Kaler, Maude Fulton, Mary Baer, Dorothy Gillen, Ethyl Peverley, Ila Gilbert, Minnie Foreman, Frances Peverley, Jennie Delsigne, Helen Carpenter, Garnett Saterfield, Vivian Cook, Joe Hardin and Melvina Beckwith.

Heart Theme
The heart theme had been carried out in decorations. Large hearts were placed in the center of each table with bouquets of red and white carnations in the center of the heart. Three tiered trays were decorated with hearts and flowers. Each place was marked with individual red telephone nut cups. Beautiful ceramic vases were the gifts for the courtesy officers. Delicious filled cake with heart decorations were served to all present.
